Instructions for Completing the Fall 2014-Spring 2015 Application for Admission

1. Please type or print all entries made on the application. Remember to sign the application. Incomplete applications cannot be considered. Please read all of the instructions carefully before completing your application.

2. The application is divided into three sections:
   - Demographic and Academic Information
   - Residency Information
   - Application Essay

3. Your Social Security number is required for admission; however, it will not be used for routine identification or authentication purposes. Each student receives a university identification (UID) number as part of his/her initial enrollment.

4. An application fee of $65 must accompany this application. This fee is not refundable. Applications that arrive without the fee will not be processed until the IAA receives the application fee. The application fee will serve as your matriculation fee provided you enroll for the term applied for on this application. Applicants seeking admission who were previously approved for admission but did not matriculate must file a new application with the required application fee. Students previously enrolled in the Institute who are seeking readmission or reinstatement are not required to pay the application fee.

5. Payment should be made by check or money order payable to the University of Maryland. Include the applicant’s name and social security number on the front of the check or money order. PLEASE DO NOT SEND CASH OR STAMPS.

6. College Forward Students—If this is your first time applying to the IAA or the University of Maryland College Park, follow the application instructions and complete the entire application and essay. College Forward applicants who have previously applied to the University of Maryland and are applying to the IAA for the same term and have already paid the UMD application fee, do not need to pay the fee again. Complete the first page of the application and write an essay addressing Prompt #1.

7. Applicants must request that official transcripts and test scores (SAT or ACT) be sent to the IAA office. The IAA requires an official copy of your secondary school transcripts, GED score, or an official copy of college transcript from the most recent college attended. Students applying for selected courses through the IAA’s continuing education program are not required to send official transcripts, but must provide documentation of high school graduation or GED.

8. Transfer Students—You should request your most recent college to send complete official transcripts to the Director, Institute of Applied Agriculture, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20742-2525. Students transferring from the four-year program at the University of Maryland College Park, may have unofficial transcripts sent to the IAA. (Note: If you will be requesting transfer credit, the IAA needs official transcripts from all institutions attended.)
9. Curriculum Option Codes

- Agricultural Business Management  B
- Sustainable Agriculture  B
- Ornamental Horticulture  C
- Landscape Management  H
- Golf Course Management  J
- Turfgrass Management  L
- Sports Turf Management  P

PART III. ESSAY INFORMATION

Instructions: The essay portion of the admissions application allows you to demonstrate your ability to write clearly and distinguish yourself as an individual. Using one of the prompts below, write an essay that is between 400-500 words to tell your story. Please include your first name and last name on the top right hand corner of your essay. Enclose your typed essay with your application.

• Prompt #1: Some students have a background or story that is fundamental to their desire to pursue a career in agriculture that they believe their admissions application would be incomplete without. If this sounds like you, please share your story.

• Prompt #2: Think about an event in your life that taught you an important lesson. What happened and what did you learn?

or

• Prompt #3: Discuss an accomplishment or event that marked your transition from childhood to adulthood within your culture, community, or family.

or

• Prompt #4: Reflect on a time when you challenged a belief or idea. What prompted you to act? Would you make the same decision again?
