

Institute of Applied Agriculture Application Instructions

- 1. The application form is divided into three parts: Demographic and Academic Information, Residency Information, Application Essay
2. Your Social Security Number is encouraged for admission; however, it will not be used for routine identification or authentication purposes. Each student receives a university identification (UID) number upon enrollment.
3. A non-refundable application fee of $75 must accompany this application. Applicants seeking admission who were previously approved for admission but did not matriculate must file a new application with the required application fee. Students previously enrolled in the Institute of Applied Agriculture (IAA) who are seeking readmission or reinstatement are not required to pay the application fee.
4. Agriculture Forward (Ag Forward) applicants: If this is your first time applying to the IAA or the University of Maryland (UMD), College Park, follow these instructions and complete the entire application form and essay. Ag Forward applicants who have previously applied to the University of Maryland, are applying to the IAA for the same term, and have already paid the $75 UMD application fee, do not need to pay again. Complete page 1 of the application form, sign, and write an essay addressing Prompt #1.
5. Applicants must request that official transcripts and SAT or ACT scores be sent to UMD. The code to submit SAT scores is 5814. The code to submit ACT scores is 1746. The IAA requires an official high school transcript(s), GED score, or an official college transcript(s). Students applying for selected courses through the IAA's Continuing Education program are not required to send official transcripts, but must provide documentation of high school graduation or GED.
6. Transfer students must request their college(s) to send complete official transcripts to: Institute of Applied Agriculture, University of Maryland, Jull Hall, Room 2123, 4196 Stadium Drive, College Park, MD 20742-2525

Students transferring from a four-year program at the University of Maryland, College Park may send unofficial transcripts. Note that in order to request transfer credit, official transcripts are required from all institutions attended.

- 7. The IAA offers one Certificate of Applied Agriculture. The IAA program includes eight tracks.

Table with 2 columns: Program Track Option, Code. Rows include Agricultural Business Management (B), Agricultural Leadership and Communication (S), Sustainable Agriculture (R), Ornamental Horticulture (C), Landscape Management (H), Golf Course Management (J), Turfgrass Management (L), Sports Turf Management (P), and Continuing Education or Undecided (O).

- 8. Application Essay: This allows you to demonstrate writing ability and to distinguish yourself as an individual. Using one of the prompts provided, write a 400-500 word essay to tell your story. Submit your typed essay with your application.
9. Mail your complete application, essay, and supporting documents to: Institute of Applied Agriculture, University of Maryland, Jull Hall, Room 2123, 4196 Stadium Drive, College Park, MD 20742-2525

19) Please answer the following:

The University is committed to providing equal educational opportunities. The University also strives to ensure a safe campus and learning environment. Therefore, while the University asks questions about disciplinary and criminal history, a positive answer to these questions does not automatically disqualify an applicant for admission. In the admission process, applications are reviewed for academic eligibility without consideration of whether the applicant answered yes to any of these questions. After an applicant is determined to be academically eligible, a separate review of disciplinary history is conducted prior to a final determination on admission. All relevant circumstances will be considered. The University reserves the right to request further information from the applicant to verify the information disclosed. In addition, applicants who are admitted may be required, as a condition of participation in certain programs, to complete a criminal history consent form, and agree to a criminal background check. When answering the questions below, please note that you are not required to report information related to minor traffic violations or records that have been expunged.

Please note: You are required to update the Institute of Applied Agriculture at oes@umd.edu (please use the subject line "Disciplinary Update") should a situation take place that would cause your answer to one of the below questions to change. This includes, but is not limited to, any criminal convictions or disciplinary actions taken against you after the time of application submission through the start of classes of your first semester at the University.

- Have you ever been convicted of a crime? Yes No If "Yes", please attach a statement describing the situation and its resolution.
